

Letter of Authority

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998, neither we nor your lender can correspond with any other party without your consent. If you wish your spouse/partner or any other person to speak or correspond with us on your behalf, please complete the details below and print this page. You, and the nominated third party must then sign the form and send it to:

Eversheds Sutherland
 1 Callaghan Square
 Cardiff
 CF10 5BT

This authority provides us with the mandate to discuss your account with the 3rd party. It does not allow the 3rd party to carry out any actions on the account.

Expiry of your authority

If this third party is an immediate family member such as a parent, brother, sister or a spouse, then this authority will remain on your account until you advise us in writing to remove it. If the third party is not an immediate family member, then the authority will expire three months from the date of this letter and new written authority will be required.
